INTERESTING NOON WEDDING AT ST.

Miss Dorothy Rockhill Recomes the Wife of Mr. Joseph Hoppin-Notable Gathering Present-Personals.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Woodville Rockhill, eldest daughter of Mr. W. W. Rockhill, and Mr. Joseph Clark Hoppin at St. John's Church at noon today was witnessed by a small assemblage of their relatives and a few personal friends. Rev. Dr. Mackay-Smith performed the ceremony and fifty guests attended the wedding breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rockhill, on I street, prior to the departure of the couple for their honeymoon journey. The chancel was profusely adorned with blooming pink chrysanthemum bushes, tall palms and rubber plants. On the altar there were two vases of white chrysanthemums. The ushers, Messrs. Cushman, Grew, Marvin and Van Brunt, nearly all relatives of the bridegroom, preceded the bride and her father to the chancel, where Mr. Hoppin and his best man, Mr. Randolph Grew of Boston, awaited her coming. Miss Dalsy Rockhill, the bride's younger sister, was her only attendant and was dressed in pale blue mousseline with a broad blue sash, a picture hat in black and carried pink rosebuds.

The bride wore heavy cream satin, the bodice and the entire front of the skirt being draped in Brussels lace, which also formed her veil. Several very elegant diamond ornaments glittered in her corsage and hair. She carried a large bouquet of lilles of the valley. All the lace worn by mums. The ushers, Messrs. Cushman lilles of the valley. All the lace worn by the bride was first donned by her grandmother and her own mother at their wed-dings. Mrs. Rockhill wore a stylish costume of brown cloth and velvet and a hat to match, in which, like the dress, touches of light blue appeared. Mrs. Courtland Hoppin, the groom's mother, wore black velvet, with appliques of black chantilly lace over white, and a sable collarette. Mr. and Mrs. Hoppin will reside near Bryn Mawr College, to which the former is atmawr College, to which the former is attached as a professor. His mother, Mrs. Hoppin, and her son-in-law and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. Cushman, are occupying the Whittemore house this winter, and where last night an entertainment for the

Mr. and Mrs. Noble D. Larner were greeted last night by several hundred guests at their golden wedding reception for which their pleasant I street home was beauti-fully adorned with yellow chrysanthemums and foliage plants. The residential families of the District largely made up the company which, with the large family group, enjoyed the delightful reunion. Mrs. Larner wore a satin and black lace. The reception lasted from eight until long past ten and added a memorable accession to the ten and added a memorable occasion to the events of the early winter. The elegant gifts received by the couple were exhibited in an upper room and made a most inter-

BICYCLE ACCIDENTS. Number of Persons Injured During

Mrs. Mulvey, wife of Policeman Mulvey, who is detailed at the White House, was knocked down by a bicycle at 12th and H streets northeast about 9:30 o'clock last night and injured about the face and body. She was assisted to her home, 621 12th street northeast, by friends A number of bicycle accidents have occurred recently, but fortunately not many of the victims sustained severe injury. Mr. James McNabb, who was so seriously hurt a few days ago, is improving.

C. G. Cone, sixty years old, was the vic-tim of a bicycle accident yesterday after-noon. He was knocked down at 7th and F streets, but was not badly injured. His home is at 1003 East Capitol street.

home is at 1003 East Capitol street.

William Watkins, a wheelman living at Takoma Park, was a party to a collision at Pennsylvania avenue and 3d street northwest yesterday afternoon. His wheel collided with a wagon and he was thrown to the pavement. He sustained a cut over his right eye, which was dressed at the Emergency Hospital.

Bicycles ridden respectively by Harry Corcoran, ten years old, of 318 D street southwest and Robert Settles, thirty-five years old, of Knox's court, collided at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue, and 6th street northwest, about 8:30 o'clock last night. Neither rider was hurt.

The police are vigilant in the enforcement of the provisions of the regulations relating to the movements of bicycles, and scorchers and those who ride on the wrong side of the street may expect to get arrested.

FIVAL SERVICES.

Celebration of St. Mark's Letheras Church Anniversary.

The fifth anniversary of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Rev. John C. Bowers, pastor, closed last evening. Nearly all of the local Lutheran pastors were present, Rev. Drs. W. E. Parson and J. G. Butler and Revs. D. E. Wiseman and Charles H. Butler occupying seats on the platform and assisting in the services. Rev. H. H. Weber, general secretary of the board of church extension, was the principal speaker. Besides talking on general lines, Mr. Weber made an appeal for funds for the reduction of the church debt. In the course of his remarks he spoke of the needs of the large cities and of the great advantages in establishing and sup-great advantages in establishing and sup-porting missions therein.

His efforts along financial lines met with gratifying success, $1,700 being subscribed for the benefit of the church, of which over $200 was paid in cash. The amount sub-scribed, when all paid in, will reduce the debt of the church to about $4,500. By re-quest Miss Carrie Burkhart sang a solo, which materially added to the interest of the services. Prof. C. F. Huber presided at the organ. at the organ.

SACRED HEART FAIR.

Large Crowd Attends the Opening at Carroll Institute. Carroll Institute was thronged last night by representative Catholics from all parts of the city who came to attend the opening of the fair for the benefit of the New Sacred Heart Church at Mount Pleasant

The hall and corridors were tastefully decorated with American and papal flags, and the bright tollets of the ladies who assisted at the various booths heightened the effec-tiveness of the scene. Rev. Father McGee, pastor of the church of the Sacred Heart, introduced Rev. Father Currier of St. Mary's Church, who farmally opened the fair with a brief address. Following this ceremony the crowds gave generous attention to the various booths and diminished their stocks quite substantially. The fair will continue two weeks.
